AHRA Volunteer Needs

Volunteers wanted, minimum commitment necessary! If you're passionate about wildlife, flora, or fishing and would like to share that passion and knowledge with others, join AHRA for a 1-3 hour max program. We have Junior Ranger, campground, and interpretive hike programs throughout the summer. We are also starting a fishing program with GARNA and TU, mentors and mentees wanted. Please contact Katie Lotzgesell for more information. 719.539.7289 or email katherine.lotzgesell@state.co.us

GARNA will be in Leadville leading a geospatial scavenger hunt for the GO Leadville! Outdoor Carnival. This fun event is open to the public, learn more here.

GARNA's Summer Nature Camp

THIS Saturday and Sunday, June 11-12
 Buena Vista Community Center

For the second year in a row, the Upper Arkansas Wilderness Volunteers (UAWV) has organized 1 1/2 days of training on the trails. This training is open to the public at NO CHARGE thanks in part to a grant from the National Wilderness Stewardship Alliance (NWSA) through its "Boots on the Ground" program. Staff from the Leadville and Salida Ranger Districts will be on hand to deliver numerous sessions. Light breakfast will be provided both Saturday and Sunday morning and lunch will be provided on Saturday, all at no charge to participants. See more information here. RSVPs are required. Please contact Kate Garwood at 719-966-9351 to reserve your place. If you care about the beautiful trails in the Arkansas Valley and would like to do your part to be a good steward of these tremendous resources, this training is for you. We hope you will join us!

Alpine Wildflower Hike on Cottonwood Pass

Saturday, July 16 * 8:00 am to 3:00 pm * Cottonwood Pass

Alpine wildflowers endure heavy snowfall, bitter wind, intense UV rays, and extreme cold. Learn how these jewels of the plant world survive and even thrive in one of the harshest environments on earth. Participants can expect to hike less than a mile to identify different species of alpine wildflowers at the top of the pass. The hike will be led by longtime GARNA volunteer Marilyn Moore. Marilyn was a Master Gardener in Denver County for 17 years and a horticulture volunteer at Denver Botanic Gardens for 20 years. Online registration is available here. Don't delay, this program always fills up quickly!

Fishing High Mountain Lakes

Sunday, July 17 * 8:00 am to 3:00 pm * "Found" Lake

Central Colorado contains some of the most pristine alpine lakes in the state and have some of the most beautiful species of fish found in the Colorado Rockies. Tom Parkes will take the group on a short hike in to "Found" Lake just below Cottonwood Pass accessed from the Lost Lake trailhead. This workshop/ hike will cover backpack inventory, high country elements

Day camps taking place in Salida, Buena Vista and Leadville this year!
There is still space in most sessions. Learn more here.

such as lightning, hypothermia, and giardiasis. Tom will help with identity of a few of the main species of trout found in these lakes as well as some of the best fly patterns that have been most productive for him over the years. Online registration is available here.

Kelly Creek Wildflower Hike

Saturday, July 30 * 8:00 am to 3:00 pm *
Kelly Creek near Saguache

Explore summer wild flowers with local wildflower expert Ruth Runge-Barnes. Ruth will share her knowledge and passion as she leads a 4-6 mile hike to identify a wide variety of flowers along Kelly Creek in Saguache County in the San Luis Valley. Ruth describes this hike as an easy ramble on uneven terrain. Online registration is available here. Don't delay, this program always fills up quickly!
